My dear Mr Manning

Thanks for letter -

The passage is as you cite

The reference is

British and Foreign Review

or European Quarterly Journal

Vol: XVII. <sup>No XXXIII</sup> (1844) Article

229 No IX. Page 228. In a letter dated Paris de" to Page 230. of the unwriting learned few deserve better to be remembered than Thomas Manning "

I am obliged for conrection of Book Plate. I have sent it off for amendment

in the scroll - if not too late -

of course I am supposed to know nothing of the

Testimonial - "So Mamma"

yet am asked to give "arms" for scroll.

hence my troubling
you under the rose.

Yours truly
Wm. McKay Downe
