

Old Malpas Apr 23. 1808

Sir

The enclosed is part of a letter which I received on the 16 from your son Mr Thomas Manning — as letters often miscarry in coming from such a distance, & as probably you may not have heard by the same opportunity from my friend, I have taken the liberty of transcribing, & enclosing for your perusal, such parts of his letter as did not concern myself personally. The Bishop of Landaff has kindly offered to ~~convey~~ ^{bring} the letter to you — on mentioning the name Mrs Watson thought that yourself & the Bishop had been friends at Cambridge.

I am Sir, most respectfully your faithful servant
Charles Lloyd.
