

TM 12/2/10

not typed → To Annette - a pupil of W^m Kenny's!

type this → Last day of poor 1822.

Dear Madam (I was going to write Annette)

Let me explain to you why you have not my acknowledgments sooner. Your kind note arrived a little after I had left the city on Saturday. On Sunday I had it not. Yesterday I saw it not for I was playing truant at Richmond.

This morning at ten o'clock only did I find it and I have not had a minute in thanking you for it.

Why, what a strange girl, good girl, I should say you must be, to keep that Friday scratch eight years! I have a good mind to write out all the days

Sunday Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday

Saturday. To be typed thus:
Sunday Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday [space] Saturday.

And now give me leave to say for my sister & myself that on any one of those days in any week we shall be happy to see W^m ^{KENNY'S} Kenny's pupil & W^m Aders' friend - Mary is at home most

A. DERS!

mornings, while we are at 20 Russell St Lowell garden where we shall be two or three weeks longer. Do pay her, if not me, a little visit. Your sister I hope will come with you.

Believe me with kind tho' imperfect
rememb^{er}s of the little girl at Mrs Kennys
Your friend
Charles Lamb.