Dear Mr. Manning

You have sent me a very nice dear kind letter and have not forgotten to mention my thing - I should like to have had you here tomorrow but I suppose you are wanted in London as the House appears to be in such confusion - Mr. White has the deeds of my House and will explain the legal rights I have to it - I had not heard any thing of O'Monroe's application - I think the Portfolio of Prints is in a chest in a little front office indeed I am sure it is there - If the bookman goes away the coachman had better be at home a good deal. I assume the door to the House right.

She cleared up as soon as the salutation is over. She stole in the drawing room

Yours dear Mr Manning
Yours sincerely
Sarah

Dear Mr Manning

An offer of fifteen hundred pounds has been made by Mr Mauley for our minerals. it is a very difficult question to decide whether to take it or not.
Mr Montagu & Mr
White are inclined to take it rather than incur the expense & risk of an Auction which could not take place till next year as there is an auction of Minerals now coming on - You heard what Mr Jouesby said, therefore fifteen hundred appears very well - on Saturday I shall

Dear Mr Manning

I this morning received a note from Mr. Ferguson advising a note you had written & here mentioning that we had charged you to advertise & here that the 2^d had better be paid in at 1 whole year to be - Now what all this can possibly mean Mr Ferguson cannot comprehend nor I either - I never, and never ~~will~~ ever recited such a debt to you - We have had a good laugh at it, when we thought of Mr. Hergmann's surprise at being called upon for the amount - I have written D. H. and told him D. Frank this letter for you - I conclude you are experiencing a little quiet and repose at Orange Grove after all the confusion you have experienced for us - We could not tell you how much we felt your kindness. I hope I am your very devoted cousin D. M. Ferguson, he will thank it I am - or if you should like that send directly by Post.

We got down this morning comfortably and enjoy the point of the shot. I hope I have something

I do. I am very much with you affectionately

Yours faithfully

Tuesday

I have now received your letter dear Mr. Manning and thank you very much for it. Don't go off for the Book Auction, but come here, pray do. My Aunt Mrs Holmes is most anxious to see you here on your way into Norfolk. She is quite fond of you for the love you have expressed for her dear Brother and she tells me to write to you today saying that a coach called the Old Mary goes from the Spread Eagle

Goan Church Street every morning to Bury - that coach passes within 3 miles of this place. To the Hedingham - and we would there meet you in the Hovey gig - You could return the same way to fastle Hedingham and take the coach on to Bury when you go on to Norfolk - it is 10 miles from fastle Hedingham to Bury - and to the Hedingham about 50 miles from London - I think I have told you all particulars and should you feel inclination to adopt this our plan you will receive a beauty welcome from us all.

You will write to say the day we are to meet you, the day before you set off from London is time enough - and as you pass through London, perhaps you will see Mr. White, about the money transferred out of Mr. M's hands, that is the important point left - never mind about the Books. I have not heard a word of business since I came, but I expect to hear from Mr. White tomorrow. goodbye then Mr. Manning.

The Old Fairy Castle Bedding House from Green Eagle Grace Church St.

Yours ever affectionately

James F. Hill
