

Denver, Slieve June Wedn^g

Dear Manning, Pray send me Flower's paper on Friday, together with as many of the London ones of this week as you can get. If you see Grubb tell him that his books are so bad I shall return upon his hands all that remain when I get to Cambridge. I spoilt two yesterday morning only. You join me from Ciers, I follow the advice of Horae — fortiter occupa Portum: nonne vides — Nadammulatus?

Pray send me ~~your letter~~ an introduction to your brother as I think I shall see Lyon soon — Send any thing you think likely to amuse one ^{your} ever
