

Trichuram Thursday morning

TM 13/2/16

M<sup>me</sup> de Vandermil regrets very much, that she was from home when M<sup>r</sup> Manning took the trouble of calling upon her. She is in hopes however that his short stay in town will not prevent his coming to Trichuram again when she will be extremely happy to receive him, & introduce M<sup>r</sup> de Vandermil & her children to him. — if Sunday next M<sup>r</sup> Manning was debarred, M<sup>r</sup> & M<sup>me</sup> de Vandermil should be very happy of his company to dinner at 6 o'clock, she begs that he would come soon in the morning that she might have time to talk with him about all her family & friends, which pleasure she has not enjoy since a long time. —

M<sup>r</sup> de Vandermil being in town till Friday, M<sup>me</sup> de Vandermil has inform'd him of M<sup>r</sup> Manning's arrival, & he will do himself the honor to call upon M<sup>r</sup> Manning & thank him for the trouble he was so good to take about these letters & parcel. The direction M<sup>r</sup> Manning wishes M<sup>me</sup> de V has sent it last night in the note, <sup>the</sup> M<sup>r</sup> de Mandat will delivered himself to M<sup>r</sup> Manning.
