

TM 15/17

My dear Sir

Altho' it is scarcely in the power of a very young Soldier, to show much attention to a friend - I am confident that should you by chance, meet with my Brother in Bengal, (to whom I take the liberty of introducing you by the accompanying letter) it will afford him much pleasure to render you any service or show you any attention

which maybe within his limited means -

With every wish for your pleasant voyage - and fulfillment of all your wishes, Believe me to be,

My Dear

Yours sincerely

J. W. Armstrong
