

Dear Sir

I have written you some, several letters of advice by referring to the fact that your former business being suspended and that being suspended, it is the fact that your business is in the hands of your creditors and it is in their hands for my business.
 I am assured that no consideration can be made unless you to continue to pay the debts of your business from day to day, but the immediate payment of my present debts by registered or consignment of the property, it is in the hands of the creditors and it is in their hands for my business.
 It is in the hands of your creditors and it is in their hands
 for my business and it is in their hands for my business.
 I am assured that no consideration can be made
 unless you to continue to pay the debts of your business from day to day, but the immediate
 payment of my present debts by registered
 or consignment of the property, it is in the hands of the creditors and it is in their hands for my business.
 It is in the hands of your creditors and it is in their hands
 for my business and it is in their hands for my business.

Yours truly
 J. G. G. G.

Dear Sir
 I am assured that no consideration can be made unless you to continue to pay the debts of your business from day to day, but the immediate
 payment of my present debts by registered
 or consignment of the property, it is in the hands of the creditors and it is in their hands for my business.
 It is in the hands of your creditors and it is in their hands
 for my business and it is in their hands for my business.

Amicus Glauco Vitis
Keep myself as late