James Street
Monday May 5th

Dear Sir

A very long while ago, when last you came to James St. you were so kind as to promise that you would come to us to meet Mr. Welch and hear him sing, if you were in town and disengaged at the time. We hope you will be able, and not unwilling to pay off your promise on Tuesday week, May 10th, and I will find out the fable in La Fontaine that says most of the pleasure of seeing our friends is learn by heart to welcome you with. My Father and Mother send their best remembrances, and I am Dear Sir,

Your obliged friend
Sarah Burney.
