Mr Manning presents his most respectful compliments to Lord Londondown & returns his warmest thanks for the Clerk ~~sent~~ he has had the honour to receive through his Lordship's hands for the trouble his Lordship has been kindly pleased to take in procuring & forwarding the same. His Lordship's mentioning in his note of Tuesday last in behalf of Mr Manning with an introduction to his Lordship's Brother-in-Law is too glorious a recommendation in every respect to Mr M. to allow him to abtain from reminding his Lordship of it and opening him with what grateful sincerity of oblique but short receive the same.

Mr M. begs leave further to add that unworded all circumstances have obliged Mr Wale Smith & partner their departure for London for 20th Day
