The Doctrine of Confession & Absolution in the protestant Church. It is different at all from the Romanish, at first, as we see in Edward 6th 1527 Rubric orders. It was only in the ^{last} importance ~~published~~ by authority attached to it in order of Communion in Ed. 6. 1527. (page 18)

That the Witch
of Endor did really evocate the Ghost of Sam. was never Doubted formerly Vide psalm. inter-
alios Eccl. & Delphic. Horace. Sat.
Lib. 1. 8. ^(v. 20.) in Notis. *

Now can it be Doubted except by willing fools

Apropos of Jcl. Horace in the note to verse 22 we see a curious instance given of such punishment to rich & severe to poor for same offence.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper with visible horizontal ruling lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be written in a larger, bolder hand than others, possibly indicating emphasis or a change in the type of text (e.g., a heading or a signature). The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but clearly antique document.
