After the Stone was laid.

---

From Heaven thy dwelling place O Lord,
With favouring eye look down,
Thy blessings graciously afford
This work of love to crown.

Within the walls which here we build
Be saving knowledge given,
And many an Infant heart be fill'd
With thoughts of Thee and Heaven.

Like Timothy may many a Youth
Thy holy Scriptures know,
Here see the beauty of thy truth,
And wise and virtuous grow.

Yes Lord! from heaven thy dwelling place,
Most graciously look down;
And let the brightness of thy face
Our labour cheer and crown.

---

After W. Hume's address -

O King of Kings! thy blessing shed,
On our lov'd Queen Victoria's head,
And let thy mighty arm from heaven
Protect the crown thyself hast given.

And when all earthly thrones decay,
And earthly honors fade away,
Give her a nobler crown ~~above~~ on high,
A crown of immortality.
