

Yes! Yes! I knew how it would be when I applied myself. But Lord Pelham didn't use that dispatch He ought I didn't know till today that my Passport was made out - To be sent to the King in the Bosc to night - but there again - His Majesty won't trouble himself to sign it perhaps till Tuesday - that's what they tell me at the Office - Had I been aware of that sooner I could have written to George Res, telling him I was in a hurry, but it won't look well to send a letter by the Penny Post to night. But perhaps his Majesty may run over the box over tomorrow morning after Church in that case He will see by the private mark Lord Pelham has no doubt put on my passport that I am to be served first - I think I'm contented. - I shall have it next week I shall see you next week - I'll send you

A letter from Calais, if I have time there - but if I go by the Diligence, which takes you up to the White Bear Piccadilly, & sets you down in Paris at Rue Notre Dame, I may chance to be found asleep when we pass thro Calais. Surely we have had a great deal of Rain lately!

Yours at present from your Obedt Servant

Thomas Manning

41 Greek Street Soho

Saturday ^{*}afternoon. —

* Not dined yet tho'. —

1831
Rev. Mr. Manning
Dix's Norfolk.

